

Waiting for a COVID-19 test result?

After getting a COVID-19 test you must return home and stay there until you receive the result

Anyone who receives a positive result must stay at home for 10 days

In the event of a positive test in the household, the rest of the family must isolate for 14 days from when the first person had symptoms

Find out more on our website:
bury.gov.uk/coronavirus